SUKKOT, SHEMINI ATZERET & SIMCHAT TORAH

Rejoice in the Safety of His Shelter

What is Sukkot?

Sukkot begins on the 15th day of Tishrei and runs for seven days. It is a holiday of happiness, in part due to the celebration surrounding the harvest. The observances unique to this holiday are the following:
Taking the Four Species

Lulav - Palm Branch, Etrog - Citron Fruit, Haddasim - Myrtle Branches, Aravot - Willow Branches

What is Shemeni Atzeret & Simchat Torah?

Although Shemini Atzeres and Simchas Torah appear to be the eighth (and ninth day, in the Diaspora) of Sukkos, in actuality, they are a separate holiday, which demonstrates G-d’s love of the Jewish people, and the celebration of the Jewish people for the completion of the Torah.
